GOOD CONDITION.—Paris is to-day in a better condition than it has been in her history. The business interests are on a solid basis, and the people, as a rule, are prosperous. There are very few, if any, vacant houses, and the merchants are all doing a nice business.

NOTICE TO PIANO OWNERS.—Mr. Paul warehouse upon the lot.

JUST FOR FUN.—On Saturday, in Judge Smith's court, a colored man named Anthony Henderson, from Ruddies Mills, was fined 50 plunks and costs for firing a pistol at random on the public highway. He said he was on his way to church and only fired the pistol to have a little fun.

A FRAME house owned and occupied by Nero Rice, an old and respected negro, in Ruckerville, was burned yesterday afternoon. Rice has been confined to his bed for nearly a year, but was resued by his neighbors. The fire company arrived in time to save the adjoining buildings.

JAW BONE FRACTURED.—While unloading poles at the freight depot, yesterday afternoon, Howard Lancaster, an employe of the East Tenn. Telephone Company, was struck and sustained a fractured jaw bone. He was removed to the home of his father, Mr.
C. J. Lancaster on Seventh Street, and last night was resting easy.

Death of French Abbott.

The sad news of the death at Somerset, Ky., of the death of Mr. French Abbott, of this city, was received here, on Sunday, and with genuine regret by a host of friends of both the deceased and his good mother, who will have the deepest sympathy of many loving friends, in this, her deep hour of affliction.

Mr. Abbott has been in the employ of Miller Brothers, of Huntington, W.
Va., as a traveling salesman, and was doing business for that firm when he was prostrated. When he arrived at the hotel in Somerset, he retired, leaving a "call" with the clerk for the early morning. Upon being called the next morning, there was no response from his room, and upon making an entrance the clerk found that he was lying on the bed in an unconscious condition. His mother, Mrs. Sallie Pullen, of this city, was telegraphed for, and arrived at his bedside at 1 o'clock, on Sunday morning. She found him conscious and he conversed with her. He lingered untill 11 o'clock Sunday, when he died.
Mr. Abbott died from heart disease. He had for several years suffered from Bright's disease, and had been in bad health for some time.

His remains reached this city, on yesterday morning, and the funeral services will take place from the residence of W. A. Parker this afternoon, at 3 o'clock, and will be conducted by the Odd Fellows, and Elder Lloyd Darsie.
Burial in Paris Cemetery.

Probably no young man in Paris had more genuine warm friends than did poor French Abbott. Always endowed with a good nature and a smile for all whom he met, it was a pleasure to be with him. He numbered his friends by the score. The writer of this feeble tribute was his associate for many years and can testify to the fact that he possessed a most lovable character and his friendship was of the purest type.

To his mother and relatives we offer our most heartfelt sympathy.

ATTENTION ODD FELLOWS.

All members of Bourbon Lodge, I.
O. O. F., are requested to meet at the Lodge room this afternoon at 2 o'clock to attend the funeral of Brother F. H.
Abbott.

ROY CLENDENIN, Secretary.

VISIT THE SCHOOLS.—President Harris, of the Chicago Board of Education, advises parents to take greater interest in the progress of their children. He says: "Parents should visit the schools often, and by their presence stimulate the intellectual ambition of their boys and girls." All over the country this plea is being urged and Paris parents should often accept Prof. Lucas's invitation to visit the High School.

The Elks' Minstrels.

Friday night next, January 24th, will be the date of the great Elks' Minstrels, at the Grand Opera House, in this city.
There is no question as to the house being more than filled, and the audience will consist of the very best people in our city and county.

The management have spared no expense in getting up this entertainment and promise the public one of the very best amateur performances ever given in Paris.

Saxton's Orchestra has been engaged for the occasion, and the vocal music by the Elks' Own Octette will be a wonder.
We would advise every one to secure their seats early and avoid the rush.

The first part scene will be a thing of bewildering beauty, with the stage all nicely decorated, and bringing to view forty of our most prominent young men in a pot-pourri of song and mirth.

Don't fail to see Marcoffsky, when in need of anything in the gent's furnishing line. Prices lower than ever.

Dr. Varden Reviews Miss Carrie Williams Berry's Biographical Sketch.

"Joel Tanner Hart," by Carrie Williams Berry, a biographical epitome of America's greatest sculptor, is a loving, sympathetic study by a typical Kentucky woman. In the vicinity of the spot where the fair authoress was reared, the young artist did some of his early chiseling. In Bourbon county—at North Middletown and near old Indian Creek church—may still be seen in the form of chimneys, fences and gravestones, his tentative efforts in the lapid-aristic art, though even in these he infinitely excelled his fellow craftsmen.

From the materials committed to her careful and tasteful scrutiny, Miss Berry has selected and organically grouped into classic unity just sufficient of her data to constitute a well-rounded view of her subject.

To the literary merits of this charming sketch should be added that in the high regions of art the subject is Kentucky's most illustrious son, and that the authoress is a Kentuckian and an efficient instructor in English literature in the Hamilton Female College.

Miss Berry's manuscript was placed at the disposal of "The Christian Woman's Board of Missions" of the Paris church, who undertook its publication. It is an attractive little volume containing a likeness of Joel T. Hart and half-tone engravings of the statue of Henry Clay, of the busts of General Cessins M. Clay and Alexander Campbell, and of the ideal statues of "Woman Triumphant" and "II Penonoso." This valuable book is on sale at Mrs.
Johnson's book store, in this city, and at the Transylvania Co., at Lexington, at the low price of 50 cents.

rence and Ben Holt, Jr. This is Mr.
Holt's first vacation since he took charge of the office, nine years ago. This powerful company with its thousands of employees, has no one in its employ who has served them more faithfully and looked to their interest more than their agent at this place.

Oil Well Incorporated.

The incorporation at Frankfort last week of the Plum Lick Oil and Mining Company, with its headquarters in this city, marks the initial movement in the development of the oil resources long known to exist in this county. The incorporators are A. P. Allis, Rev. Taylor Sharrard, F. B. Sandusky, of Paris, and Boone Ingels, of Carlisle. The company will have a capital stock of $250,000.

It has long been known that in the neighborhood of Plum Lick and North Middletown, this county, there existed excellent surface indications of oil. A party of Paris business men, at the invitation of the company's representatives in Paris, made the trip to the oil wells and they were shown indications of an undoubtedly rich oil field. The first step was made at the new well now being sunk on the Henry Caywood farm between Plum Lick and North Middletown. This well is now down in the rock about 80 feet, the drills having started on Friday morning. About three feet from the new well is the old one bored in 1883, and from which over one hundred barrels of excellent lubricating oil have been pumped. This well is now 60 feet deep and full of oil to within eight feet of the surface.

Besides the Bourbon fields the company is interested in the oil fields of Bracken and Robertson counties, which they are assisting to develop.

In the visiting party was Mr. W. B.
Allen, of the Central Trust Co., of this city. Mr. Allen is also an oil expert, having been actively engaged for years in the Ohio and West Virginia fields.
Mr. Allen says the indications shown at the fields visited by the party are undoubtedly genuine and that there is plenty of oil of a superior quality there, and probably in paying quantities.

The company is preparing to put two more drills at work, and before long something of interest to Bourbon county people is expected to develop.

ATTENTION—is directed to the advertisement in this issue of the public sale of stock farming implements, etc., of W. E. Hibler, at his farm on the Paris and Cynthiana pike, between Ewalt's Cross Roads and Mt. Carmel Church, on Tuesday, Feb. 18, 1902. The sale will commence at 10 o'clock a. m. This will be a good opportunity for the farmers to get bargains.

LIQUID AIR.—At great expense the High School has engaged a Liquid Air entertainment for this city, with guarantee that a quantity of real liquid air will be brought, and all the remarkable experiments performed, of which so much has been read. A capable Lecturer and expert demonstrator, with complete laboratory apparatus, will make this paradoxical subject clearly understood even by the young, and the marvelous experiments will entertain and astound all. The date will be Thursday, January 30th.

Child Worth Millions.

"My child is worth millions to me," says Mrs. Mary Bird, of Harrisburg, Pa., yet I would have lost her by croup had I not purchased a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure." One Minute Cough Cure is sure cure for coughs, croup and throat and lung troubles. An absolutely safe cough cure which acts immediately. The youngest child can take it with entire safety. The little ones like the taste and remember how often it helped them. Every family should have a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure handy. At this season especially it may be needed suddenly.—W. T.

Women and Jewels.

Jewels, candy, flowers, man—that is the order of a woman's preferences.
Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous efforts to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem, then let her fortify herself against the insidious consequences of coughs, colds and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Boschee's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure all but it is a certain cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get Dr.
G. G. Green's reliable remedies at W.
